

Transforming The Practice Of Law Into A Healing Profession

From bankruptcy and civil law to estate planning and probate, at Lockey Legal LLC, I strive for collaborative problem-solving utilizing many areas of practice.

Legal Issues Don't Have To Be Adversarial

While it is true that facing a legal matter can be stressful, it does not necessarily have to take over your entire life. I'm attorney Lockey White and I understand that you may be very worried right now. I am here to help your legal issue go as smoothly as possible.

I am more than a Lawyer. I am also an entrepreneur, an artist, a board member, and nonprofit innovator. By practicing many areas of law and having a broad life experience, I am often able to resolve my clients' legal needs and advise them on how to make positive change in a holistic manner. Not all legal problems need legal solutions. And almost all legal issues are interconnected.

For example, in my probate and estate planning practice, I often encounter elder abuse and real estate law issues. In my bankruptcy practice, I often encounter foreclosure and deceptive practices. Instead of hyper-specializing and then only treating a small aspect of a client's legal problem, I try to treat the whole patient.

While I don't do family law or criminal law, I can refer you to other attorneys who I work well with so together we can help you to navigate your way out of your legal troubles with grace and dignity. While a non-adversarial approach is preferable, when necessary to protect my client's interests I am readily capable of providing zealous and aggressive representation.

I always start by doing my best to create a positive outcome that is acceptable to all. After that, I fight as hard as possible so the battle is quick. Nobody wins with prolonged litigation.

I Am Here For You

As your lawyer, one of my primary duties is to make sure that you understand your rights and options. My job is to explain them in a language that you understand so you can make informed decisions about your case. I will take as much time as necessary to discuss your concerns with you and guide you to the conclusion of your legal matter.

I practice bankruptcy, civil litigation, commercial litigation, real estate litigation, foreclosures, probate, estates, elder law, fraud, deceptive practices, corporate formation, business law and ecclesiastical law. Because many of these areas overlap, I can provide comprehensive solutions to even the most complex matters.
